Schedule 3 - User Restriction Notice

1. Any person who uses the eIFRS service shall be referred to in this Notice as a User. If a User does not agree to any or all of the restrictions set out in this Notice they shall henceforth cease to use the eIFRS service.
2. Users acknowledge the rights of the International Financial Reporting Standards Foundation (the "Foundation") in the Works which are made available as part of the eIFRS service and shall not do or omit to do any act which would or might invalidate or be inconsistent with those rights.
3. Users shall comply with all applicable laws including those relating to copyright and other intellectual property rights when using the Works.
4. Users are permitted to use the Works for their personal use only and shall not, without prior written agreement of the Foundation have the right to license, sublicense, sell, rent, or otherwise distribute any portion of the Works to third parties. Users agree that they will not use the service for commercial or other business purposes.
5. Users do not have the right to reproduce, in either hard copy or electronic format, the text of any individual International Financial Reporting Standard (including International Accounting Standards) ("Standards") or any specific document, extract or combination thereof taken from the Works for any seminar, conference, training or similar commercial event without the prior written permission of the Foundation.
6. Subject to paragraphs 6 and 8 Users are entitled to reproduce in hard copy or electronic format for their personal or professional non-commercial purposes only not more than 5 copies of any individual Standard or specific part of the Works and up to 10 copies of extracts (being not more than 25% of any complete Standard or section of the Works) for personal, professional or business use only. Any such copies in electronic format must be accompanied by the following wording: "© International Financial Reporting Standards Foundation. All rights reserved. Reproduction and use rights are strictly limited".
7. Users are obliged to obtain the approval from the Foundation to produce more copies than those permitted by paragraph 7 or, if greater, the fair copying provisions of the copyright legislation in the respective territory from which they are accessing the Works or to sublicense the Works or for one of the purposes which are not explicitly permitted by these Terms.
8. The Foundation reserves the right to make additional charges for any use which is not explicitly permitted under this Notice.
9. If any User breaches any of the provisions of this Notice their right to use the Works shall forthwith terminate.
10. Some material comprised in the Works is freely available from Governmental institutions and bodies.
11. The International Accounting Standards Board, the Foundation, the authors and the publishers do not accept responsibility for any loss caused by acting or refraining from acting in reliance on the material in this publication, whether such loss is caused by negligence or otherwise to the maximum extent permitted by law. In particular and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing sentence, the Foundation will not have any liability to Users for any loss of expectations of any kind, loss of profit, loss of business, business interruption or loss of opportunity including business opportunity.
12. For the purposes of these Terms "Works" means material which has been identified in the relevant publication, training materials or in seminars as provided by the Foundation.
